

Code of Conduct at Government College Bhoranj (Tarkwari)

The Code of Conduct for students, teachers, administrators, and other staff members of Government College Bhoranj (Tarkwari) establishes a set of guidelines and expectations to maintain a positive and conducive educational environment. The code promotes ethical behaviour, respect, professionalism, and accountability. The following are the key components of the Code of Conduct:

FOR STUDENTS

- a. Respect: Students are expected to treat fellow students, teachers, administrators, and staff members with respect, courtesy, and dignity.
- b. Academic Integrity: Students must uphold academic honesty and integrity in all their academic pursuits, including assignments, examinations, and research.
- c. Attendance and Punctuality: Students are required to attend classes regularly, arrive on time, and actively participate in academic activities.
- d. Discipline: Students should adhere to college rules and regulations, maintaining discipline within the campus premises.
- e. Anti-Discrimination: Discrimination based on race, gender, religion, caste, nationality, or any other factors is strictly prohibited.
- f. Responsible Use of Resources: Students must use college facilities, resources, and equipment responsibly, ensuring their proper care and maintenance.

FOR TEACHERS

- a. Professionalism: Teachers are expected to exhibit professionalism, integrity, and a commitment to their teaching responsibilities.
- b. Respectful Classroom Environment: Teachers should foster a respectful and inclusive classroom environment, promoting open discussion, intellectual growth, and student engagement.
- c. Fair Assessment: Teachers must assess students fairly, providing constructive feedback and maintaining transparency in grading and evaluation.
- d. Continuous Professional Development: Teachers should strive for continuous professional growth, staying updated with current educational practices and methodologies.
- e. Respect for Diversity: Teachers must respect the diverse backgrounds, perspectives, and experiences of students, fostering an inclusive learning environment.
- f. Ethical Conduct: Teachers should adhere to ethical standards and avoid any behaviour that may harm the reputation of the college or compromise the trust placed in them.

FOR ADMINISTRATORS AND OTHER STAFF

- a. Professionalism: Administrators and staff members should conduct themselves professionally, displaying courtesy, efficiency, and fairness in their interactions with students and colleagues.
- b. Supportive Environment: Administrators and staff members are responsible for creating a supportive and welcoming environment for students, providing necessary guidance and assistance.
- c. Confidentiality: Administrators and staff members must maintain the confidentiality of student records, personal information, and any sensitive data they come across in the course of their duties.
- d. Compliance with Policies: Administrators and staff members should comply with college policies, procedures, and guidelines, ensuring their consistent implementation.
- e. Effective Communication: Administrators and staff members should communicate effectively and respectfully with students, teachers, and colleagues, fostering a positive work environment.

The Code of Conduct serves as a framework to promote a harmonious and productive college community where students, teachers, administrators, and staff members can thrive. It sets the expectations for responsible behavior, respect for others, and commitment to academic and professional excellence within Government College Bhoranj (Tarkwari).